Purchase of new poll pads. I have been receiving a lot of emails from our current Poll Pad Vendor, and I do not feel comfortable about them doing the next Election. I have only had random correspondence from them that I don't feel is very professional. I as well as my staff have called them and emailed them several times since July and have not had any response to our tickets that I have entered. My job is to make sure to have the Election up and running and I do not feel like they will be there when I need them
